On a Bend az: 3 Dolphins embowed.

Upon a defaced monument on which is no inscription is this Coat armour found often.

(Upon a Bend 3 Dolphins emb: Or: ye Coat of Osborn, Maier 1661.)

Within this Church upon ye Wall over ye South Door is painted a Stately Monument wherein lyes attired in all Royal Ornam^{ts}, is represented the famous Q. Elizabeth lying along in full proportion, and if ye reason be enquired, it is because some say she took great delight in hearing ye bells of ye p'ish. So generally lov'd when living, & honoured when dead, was that Q. yt monuments to her memory & praise were thus set up in 33 Churches in London, besides that chief and sumptuousst monum^t erected to her mem: by K. J., & in imitation thereof, see Stow's Survey, 1633.

This Church has a Ring of 6 very good Bells, a Clock, & Chimes every 3 Hours.

In S^t Maries Church is this Inscription cut very deep in a stone set in y^e Wall at y^e West end of the Church.

From this gate Southwards, at y^e distance of 330 paces along the City Wall, you come at a Stone set up in the said Wall on the outside next y^e Ditch, in wh^{ch} Stone is this inscription:

IN THE TIME OF ALEXÄDER ÄGVISH
ESQUIER MAIOR
AÑO DOM¹ 1629.

(There is a stone opposite to this that is in y^e inside of y^e Wall, next Chapply field, but y^e inscription is not now legible, doubtless it was the same.) This length of the piece of y^e wall, appearing to have been then repaired, is 55 paces, the stone set up in y^e midst of it; 146 paces farther east, is a p^s of Wall newly reedified. 46 paces length, & 10 paces of y^e battlem^{te} of this side repaired, about y^e middle of w^h is set up in y^e inside a stone thus inscribd:

ÆDIFICATA TEMPORE
